

There's No Place Like Home

Indiana University - Purdue University

Every university needs a unique space. Better would be unique with a touch of home.

By adding a fiery blue community table—harkening to summer reunions and ice cream socials —Nvironment split IUPUI's Indianapolis dining hall with electric intensity. Its comfortable arc in parallel with the pin-lit soffit above and river-rock floor flowing below separate this element as someplace special.

Cozy nooks and private dining for students were forged through translucent pivot walls; Flex Spaces in keeping with the dynamic needs of the University.

Colorful ceiling details and vivid signage finish off the hall with color and whimsy giving the space a little piece of home; a home completely unique to the residents of IUPUI.

Highlights

- Food Service Engineering
- Fixture Design
- Graphics
- Lighting Design
- Furniture Specifications
- Signage Design

